BIBLE ANSWERS ON THE GREAT CONTROVERSY

» Read Genesis 3:15; Romans 5:12-21; 1 Peter 5:8.

» There has been enmity [hostility] between God and His children and Satan and his followers since Adam and Eve's sin in the Garden of Eden. The devil does not want us to trust and know God. It is only by the power of the Holy Spirit that we are able to resist the devil and follow God.

» What do these verses say to you about the great controversy?

RESPONDING

» Read Romans 5:12.

» The main reason people stay away from Christianity is that they have a hard time with what other people say about God and what they think they see God doing or not doing in our world. Here are three questions that young and old have shared as to why they don’t believe in God or choose to follow Him:

1. If God is good, then why do evil and bad seem to reign in the world?
2. If God is all-powerful, why doesn’t He do something about pain and suffering?
3. If God is supposed to be so close, why do I feel only His absence?

How would you answer these questions? You may choose one or all.

THE BLIND MEN AND THE ELEPHANT

"It was six men of Indostan
To learning much inclined,
Who went to see the Elephant
(Though all of them were blind),
That each by observation
Might satisfy his mind.

"The First approached the Elephant,
And, happening to fall
Against his broad and sturdy side,
At once began to bawl,
'God bless me! but the Elephant
Is very like a wall!'

"The Second, feeling of the tusk,
Cried, 'Ho! What have we here
So very round and smooth and sharp?
To me 'tis mighty clear
This wonder of an Elephant
Is very like a spear!'

"The Third approached the animal,
And, happening to take
The squirming trunk within his hands,
Thus boldly up and spake:
'I see,' quoth he, 'the Elephant
Is very like a snake!'

"The Fourth reached out his eager hand,
And felt about the knee.
'What most this wondrous beast
Is like,' quoth he, 'I see,
The Elephant Is very like a tree!'

"The Fifth, who chanced to touch
The ear, said, 'E'en the blindest man
Can tell what this resembles most;
Deny the fact who can,
This marvel of an Elephant
Is very like a fan!'

"The Sixth no sooner had begun
About the beast to grope,
Then seizing on the swinging tail
That fell within his scope,
'What most this wondrous beast
Is like,' quoth he, 'the Elephant
Is very like a rope!'

"And so these men of Indostan
Disputed loud and long,
Each in his own opinion
Exceeding stiff and strong,
Though all were partly in the right,
And all were in the wrong!

"So oft in theologic wars
The disputants, I ween,
Rail on in utter ignorance
Of what each other mean,
And prate about an Elephant
Not one of them has seen!" —John Godfrey Saxe (1816-1887)

REFLECTING
» Read Romans 8:19-22.
» Have you heard songs on the radio or listened to people talk about prayer in the news, magazines, and in movies? The world is not afraid to talk about God anymore, but what are they saying? The problem is that many know that there is a God, but rarely do people agree on what He is like. While many speculate, Christians have a message about God, and it is not just a snapshot; it is a view of the big picture. If you stand in front of a painting on the wall with your nose two inches from the canvas, you see up close but only a small portion.
» The great controversy, as explained in the Bible, has been the most amazing topic for many because it paints the big picture, and when you step back to see it, you can make sense out of the little parts in the scene. What if someone had the answer to “Why is this world so bad?” Do you think people might listen? What if someone had the answer to the question “Will there ever be a time when there is no pain?” Do you think people might be curious? What if someone had a good answer to the heart cry “Is God really there, and does He know me?” Do you know some people who might listen? God has spoken to us through His Word, and while we don’t know everything, we see enough of the truth to say, “Choose God. He’s worth it.”

APPLYING
» Read Romans 7:21-25.
» The internal war for your loyalty to God is like having two lions living inside you, the lion of good, and the lion of evil. Here’s a challenge. Pick three things you want to do to feed the good lion (things that feed and strengthen your connection to God). Also, consider what you normally feed the bad lion (things that draw you away from God and others) and choose to starve it this week. See how things go, and then reflect on the week and the way it has affected your awareness of the war between God and Satan and the role you play in that battle zone.
